

HUMAN RESOURCES POLICY

At the EDEN ROC HOTEL we are committed to treat our employees fairly, with respect and by encouraging their personal, economic and professional development.

In accordance to our vision we have assured that all personnel has been informed of our policies by handing them the employ handbook at the beginning of every tourist season.

The company complies with all applicable National and European employee laws and regulations.

The hotel currently employs over 50 members of the local community

Staff is paid above the National minimum wage.

The company has organized several training courses for the employees in the year 2017 .

George Vassilopoulos

Eden roc Hotel Manager